CRIMINAL APPLICATION NO. 2279 OF 2004

IN

CRIMINAL APPEAL NO.686 OF 2004.

Bhau Govind Bhand & Anr. : Applicants.

versus.

The State of Maharashtra : Respondent.

Ms.Revati Mohite-Dere for the applicants.

Mr.D.R.More, APP, for the State.

CORAM : D.G.DESHPANDE,J.

DATED : 11th August 2004.

P.C.

1. Heard advocate for the applicants and learned APP for the State. This is an application for bail. The accused have been convicted under Sections 326 and 324 of the Indian Penal Code and the maximum sentence is two years. A dispute arose out of a quarrel between the brothers. Advocate for the accused states that other side i.e. the complainant's brother side have also been convicted i.e. some of them in counter case. The APP was asked to verify whether tension still prevails on account of the aforesaid quarrel betwen the brothers. He makes a statement, upon instructions, that there is no dispute at present. Advocate for the accused states that the accused were on bail and they are on bail as granted by trail Court. Therefore, same bail, fresh bond. The applicants/accused will attend Manchar Police Station once in a week for three months; thereafter once in a fortnight for three months and thereafter once in a month till disposal of the appeal. Substantive sentence of the accused is suspended, pending appeal. Police to mark attendance of the accused on the diary maintained by them. Advocate for the accused states that the accused have paid the fine.

2. All concerned parties to act upon ordinary copy of this order duly authenticated by the Court Sheristedar.
